

Thank you for your interest in this Survival, Preparedness, and Sustainable living CD. The purpose of this CD is to distribute and disseminate as much information as possible for free to promote self-reliant living. Only self-reliant people can be free. Dependency during a disaster whether short-term or long term ultimately always ends in tragedy either through injury, loss of life, loss of income, and loss of freedom. It's our hope by distributing this CD for free that we can help promote freedom, independence and self-reliance.
